MRS. EATON TAKEN IN CUSTODY TODAY

Widow is Formally Charged With Murdering Her Husband.

DEATH WAS BY POISON

District Attorney Says There Will be Developments of an Interesting Nature—Search For The Will.

Hingham, Mass., March 20.—Mrs. Eaton, widow of Rear Admiral Eaton, has been arrested, charged with the murder of her husband.

The arrest followed the bringing of Mrs. Eaton to the court house in a closed automobile, from her home in Assinippi, accompanied by two officers. It was thought that she was brought to the inquest merely to testify. Within ten minutes arter her arrival, however, District Attorney Baker communicated with Mrs. Eaton's counsel, Francis J. Grogan at the Abingdon Courthouse and within half an hour he was admitted to the court room here. When asked for a statement after Mrs. Eaton's arrest, District Attorney Barket said:

"The admiral's death was caused by poison, but as yet we have been unable to find out where it was procured.

Hingham, Mass., March 20.—The mystery in the sudden death of Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton nearly two weeks ago, since which time a rigid investigation has been in progress, is today expected to be cleared.

When the inquest was resumed here District Attorney Barked would only reiterate his statement that "there will be interesting developments of an unexpected nature." In justification of the mystery and silent attitude assumed throughout the case by the authorities he said:

"While the public may think it strange that no explanation comes from the officials about the results of their investigations, yet when it sees the exact situation it will be understood that the police in justice to themselves could not give out anything."

That the case will turn out to be murder is confidently believed because of reliable information obtained that the police have eliminated the natural death and suicide theories.

The statement of a man in close touch with the situation "that the government is having a hard time getting the evidence but what the district attorney has learned points very closely to one person," leads to the belief that an arrest may be expected soon.

While the inquest was going on today the police continued their search for a will, reported to have been made by the admiral cutting off everyone except Dorothy Ainsworth, his favorite stepdaughter, and for some arsenical poison.

Mrs. Eaton pleaded not guity when she was arraigned immediately before Judge Edward Pratt. A continuance with a nagreement between the district attorney and her counsel, Francis J. Georgan followed. She was held without bail.

SUIT AGAINST SOUTHERN.

Col. Francis L. Smith, Howard W. Smith and Samuel G. Brent will leave tonight for Richmond to argue the case of Recker against the Southern Railway Co., before the Supreme Court tomorrow. The case was appealed from the Corporation Court of this city. Recker was injured in the Southern Railway shops and is suing for $10,000.

DIED.

Mark E. Miller, formerly of Alexandria, died in Washington, D. C., Wednesday, March 19, 1913, 8 a. m., aged 36 years. Funeral will take place from his late residence, No. 524 3rd St., N. E., Friday, March 21, 1913, 2 P. M. Interment will be made in Bethel Cemetery, Alexandria, Va.

Seat Cost $41,0000.

New York, March 20.—The lowest mark since 1900 for the price of a seat on the New York Exchange was recorded today when a seat was sold for $41,000 a decrease of $4,000 from the last previous sale.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A dispatch from Tokyo, Japan, says it is learned through official sources that, in the event bills now before the California legislature and hostile to Japanese pass Japan will withdraw her support from the Pacific Panama Exposition, refusing to exhibit, and prohibiting Japanese citizens from having any connecton with the fair.

A dispatch from Medicine, Hat, Alberta, says five persons were killed and twelve injured, some probably fatally, in an explosion which wrecked the plant of the Malcom Canning Company yesterday. A small fire which broke out while plumbers were repairing a broken gas main in the building caused the explosion. The building, a three story structure, was unroofed and practically reduced to a mass of debris by the explosion. Several persons received their injuries by being struck with flying bricks.

Five of the Musica family, of New York, three male members of which are charged with defrauding New York and European banks out of a million dollars, were arrested in New Orleans yesterday on the steamer Heredia, as they were about to sail for Panama. In the clothes of Antonio Musica and his three sons, George, Arthur, and Philip, the police found $80,000 in currency and from the corset of Grace Musica, a daughter, $18,000 in large bills was extracted. When the party was being taken from the wharf, the elder Musica tried to get a revolver from Philip, and when a detective interfered the young man exclaimed: "No, I won't give it up. I am going to kill myself before I get to police headquarters." It was necessary for the officers to take the weapon away from the young man by force.

Granville Dickey, reached his home in Washington yesterday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock, no worse from an adventurous trip. He had been in Charlottesville, Va., since Monday night, and had spent most of his time with the Washington ball team. Eugene Brown, a third-year engineering student in the University of Virginia, was responsible for the boy's home coming. Granville struck up an acquaintance with Brown in the railroad station in Charlottesville, went to the student's room, and spent two nights with him. He took his meals with Brown Tuesday and yesterday, and it was not until yesterday morning that Brown knew his guest was the boy who was being sought by hundreds of persons in and about Washington.

Members of the Society of West Virginia are still talking over the experience enjoyed during the tour of inspection through what is probably the most remarkable private dwelling in the world, the $7,000,000 home of William A. Clark ex-copper king and former senator from Montana. For three hours the privileged West Virginians feasted their eyes on the magnificent beauties of this great pile, which is built of marble from all of the great quarries of the world, trimmed with 1,000,000 pounds of bronze, and decorated with paintings by the masters and tapestries, ancient and modern, gathered from all parts of the world.

DISORDERLY NEGROES.

Sergeant Scott and Officer Nicholson this afternoon arrested Bettie Pearson, Celia Cole and Gilbert Price, all colored, charged with disorderly conduct in the western section of the city. They will be arraigned in the Police Court tomorrow morning.

PACED ON ROAD FORCE.

Guard R. E. Mitchell came to this city today and took charge of Michael Sullivan, John Boswell, Hamilton Sebold and Clyde Sullivan, white, and George Johnson, colored, recently sentenced to serve six months in jail for misdemeanors. The prisoners were taken to Fauquier county, where they will be put to work upon the roads

MAUNDY THURSDAY BANQUET.

The solemn Maundy Thursday banquet of Randolph Chapter of the Rose Croix, Scottish Rite Masons, will be held tonight in the Young People's Building. James E. Alexander, wise master, will preside. The lights on the altar will be extinguished not to be reighted until Easter afternoon.

FIRE IS BLAMED ON SUFFRAGETTES

Lady White's Country Home Destroyed by Incendiary Blaze.

LOSS ABOUT $20,000.

Legends of Placards Show That Women Started Fire as Protest Against Forcible Feeding.

London, March 20—Incendiary fire, started by suffragettes today completely destroyed an unoccupied country house Englefield green, owned by Lady White, widow of Sir George White, the hero of Ladysmith, in the Boer war. The fire caused a loss of $20,000.

The police were left in doubt as to who started the fire.

"Stop torturing our comrades in prison" was the legend on placards posted around the burned house, and "votes for women" posters were also in evidence.

That the burning of Lady White's home was a direct protest against forcible feeding of imprisoned suffragettes could not be doubted, from the messages on the placards.

From time to time militants have been released from the jails, telling stories of horrible torture undergone when forcibly fed. At the last London pavillion meeting Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst read aloud a letter from her daughter Sylvia, imprisoned in Holloway jail, telling of alleged abuse by forcible feeding.

The girl said she was held by attendants and fed through a stomach tube, her mouth and teeth being always bleeding and sore because of rough handling by the wardresses.

Scotland Yard detectives today were searching for two women who were seen riding away from the White home at 1:15 a. m., and allowed to pass by the police. The women were on bicycles, and policemen stopped them because one had no lamp. It now is believed that they were the suffragettes who fired the house.

Lady White is now in France. She has not occupied the Englefield Green residence since the king allotted her quarters n Hampton Court Palace, in recognition of the heroic service of her late husband.

Rear End Collision.

Wilmington, Del., March 20.—Northbound local train No. 22 leaving here at 6:30 o'clock this morning was struck in the rear by an express special just north of Bellevue station on the Pennsylvania Railroad at 6:40 and several cars of the local were badly damaged. Traffic was interfered without for an hour or more.

Miss M. A. Gibson, of this city, and Thomas Mealey, of Philadelphia, passengers on the local were injured. Railroad officials say that the engineer of the local went by the red instead of stopping to allow the special express to pass.

PLANS FOR CLUB HOUSE.

Alexandria Motor Boat Club Accepts Design by W. E. Spofford.

At a regular meeting of the Alexandria Motor Boat Cub which was held last night, plans for the new club house to be erected on the property leased by the club at the foot of Wolfe street were accepted. The plans were prepared by W. E. Spofford and provide for a two-story building which will be equipped with club rooms, locker room, baths, etc. The cost will be about $1,500. At last night's meeting $250 was, subscribed and a committee appointed to solicit subscriptions from the other members of the organization.

Encouraging reports were received from the committees having in charge the regatta on May 30th. The Corinthian Yacht Club, the Eastern Power Boat Association and the Capital Yacht Club have accepted invitations to take part in the regatta. A suggestion made last night that other classes of boat races be arranged at the same time and invitations will be extended to the various rowing and canoe clubs to participate in the sports.

POTOMAC RIVER NOTES.

Repainting Steamer—Shipping Ties. Fishing Season.

Painters are aboard the steamer Newport News of the Norfolk and Washington steamboat fleet, giving her a general cleaning, repainting and redecorating in preparation for being placed in service to relieve the larger boats of the fleet when they are withdrawn to receive their annual repairing, overhauling and repainting.

To load a cargo of railroad ties for New York the barge Raymond McNaly has arrived at the mouth of Occoquan Creek. The McNaly will load the first cargo of ties on the Potomac this season, but she will be followed closely by the barge Clara Brooks, which is to load in Mattox Creek, and will also take ner cargo to New York. The two vessels will take away about 20,000 ties.

The Clara Brooks is under charter for a year to run ties between Alexandria and other Potomac points to New York, and as fast as she unloads one cargo she will return for another.

One of the largest catches of fine rock fish ever made on the Potomac was made by the haul seine at the Gum's fishing shore a few days ago. Two large boats were filled almost to sinking with the fish and thay filled fifty barrels. Most of the catch was sent to Baltimore and Philadelphia, where it brought fancy prices. The fish ranged in size from about a pound in weight up to forty pounds and practically an entire school was taken.

CITY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTTE.

Primary Election Fixed For May Twenty-Ninth.

A meeting of the City Democratic Committee was held last night at the Hotel Rammel when it was decided to hold a primary May 29 next for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various State and city offices. It was also decided that candidates will have ten days' to file notice of their candidacy with the clerk of the court. They will, therefore, have until March 29 in which to do so. This is done in view of the fact that the new State primary law requires that notice of candidacy be filed with the clerk of the court by candidates sixty days prior to the date of the primary.

It was decided to assess the candidates entering the primary $10 each, same to be paid to the chairman of the city committee.

The meeting was presided over by Charles Bendheim, chairman, and R. T. Cook served as secretary.

The following city and State offices are to be filled in the coming primary: Auditor, Clerk of Courts, Commissioner of revenue, clerk of gas, collector of taxes, city treasurer, city sergeant, corporation attorney, Commonwealth's attorney, measurer of wood and bark, measurer of lumber.

So far as known none of the incumbents will have any opposition, in which event the candidate will doubtless be declared the party nominees by the committeee.

SERVICES AT CHURCHES.

Holy Thursday Observed Today. Good Friday Services Tomorrow.

Services in the Catholic and Episcopal Churches which marked the observance of Holy Week took an added tone of solemnity today which will culminate tomorrow in the celebration of Good Friday. Today is Maundy (Holy) Thursday, commemorating the institution of the Eucharist at the Lord's last supper. There was a very large congregation at high mass which was celebrated at St. Mary's Church this morning, and 100 little girls took part in the procession to the church. Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be a sermon by Rev. Father Elliott, on the Eucharist. Services at St. Mary's starts tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. At 3:30 there will be a sermon on the Ways of the Cross and at 8 p. m., a sermon on the Passion by Father Elliott.

In the three Episcopal churches there will be communion service tonight at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow services will be at 11 o'clock, and from 12 to 3 o'clock there will passion services at Grace Church. This church will also have evening service tomorrow evening.

NEW KING TO TAKE OATH TOMORROW

Usual Formalities Will be Observed in Chamber of Deputies.

BODY LIES IN STATE.

Public Allowed to View Remains—Schinas Refuses Make Any Explanation of His Deed.

Athens, March 20.—King Constantine arrived in Athens today and it was arranged for him formally to take the oath tomorow in the chamber of deputies.

Constantine, in effect, became King automatically when King George died, but many formalities remained to be observed. The council of ministers proclaimed him king and tomorrow he will take the oath, and six months hence he will be crowned. That function will not occur until the expiration of the half year's mourning decreed by the chamber of deputies.

Salonika, March 20.—The body of the murdered King George of Greece today lay in state in the main chamber of the palace, guarded by soldiers, awaiting the completion of the funeral arrangements. Prince Nicholas stated that plans would not be announced until after the formalities at Athens, when the oath is administered to King Constantine.

The removal of the king's body from the hospital to the palace was as impressive as it was simple. After the embalming, the body was placed on a plain military stretcher and carried through the streets, Prince Nicholas, aides to the king and high military officers taking turns at bearing the stretcher. The procession passed over the spot where King George was assassinated.

In the motley throng that trailed behind were Greek soldiers in service uniforms, high officials and diplomats in brilliant dress, peasants, moslems and Jews, and all were weeping.

At the palace the Metropolitan offered prayer and the military officers filed past the bier. Then the soldier guard was set and the public was allowed to see the body.

Schinas, the assassin, despite repeated gruelling examination, has not admitted that he acted for any organization or had any assistance.

THREE-SCORE YEARS BARS.

McReynolds Rules on Qualification for Federal Judgeship.

Attorney-General McReynolds' announcement of the policy which will guide him in recommending appointments for the Federal bench to President Wilson has practically elminated the present field of aspirants from Maryland and Virginia for the vacancy in the Fourth Circuit Court of the United States to be created by the resignation of Judge Nathan Goff, who has been elected to the United States Senate from West Virginia.

Mr. McReynolds told a delegation of Virginians, who called to urge the appointment of Charles W. Meredith, the noted "anti machine" lawyer of Richmond, and Lucien B. Cocke, division counsel of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, at Roanoke, that he intended to draw the deadline on lawyers of more than 60 years of age and upon lawyers with large corporations and railroad connections.

Dr. Minor Lyle, dean of the law school of the University of Virginia, now looms up as the prominent Virginia aspirant. The name of Congressman Andrew Jackson Montague, of Richmond, is also discussed.

Incident to the call of the Virginians it was learned that Judge C. A. Woods, of the Supreme Court of South Carolina, is a strong possibility. Judge Woods has a personal acquantance with President Wilson and his name was mentioned in the interyew with the delegations which came to see Mr. McReynolds in behalf of other candidates.

TWO CHILDREN BITTEN BY DOGS

Canines Ordered Killed by Justice Caton in Police Court.

FINE DOGS KILLED.

Terrier and Bulldog, Belonging to Duncan Bros. Were Bitten by Dog Who Was Found to Have Rabies.

The biting of two children yesterday afternoon following the two deaths from hydrophobia in Alexandria and the report received yesterday from the bureau of animal industry in Washington that the fox terrier which on last Saturday bit the two dogs belonging to the Duncan Bros., was suffering from rabies has created a mad dog scare in Alexandria that is alarming.

Haywood Temelly, the 13-year-old son of G. C. Temelly, residing at 714 north Columbus street, was bitten yesterday afternoon at four o'clock by a fox terrier owned by T. W. Helms. The boy was passing the Helms house on north Alfred street when the dog bit him. His wound was cauterized and a warrant sworn out against the owner of the dog. In Police Court Justice Caton ordered that the dog be killed and the head sent to the bureau in Washington for examination.

Similar action was taken in the case of the fox terrier of E. N. Duffey, who at six o'clock yesterday afternoon bit Dorothy Wells, the 9-year-old daughter of Frank E. Wells. The child with several companions was playing near the corner of Cameron and Pitt street, when the dog escaped from the house of his owner and chased the children. He caught the little Wells girl and inflicted a severe bite on her leg. The child was taken to the office of Dr. M. B. Delaney where the wound was dressed.

The dogs belonging to William T. and James M. Duncan, were valuable canines. One was a thoroughbred brown collie owned by William T. Duncan valued at $100 and the other was a bulldog, belonging to James M. Duncan. When the report that the terrier which had bitten their dogs was suffering from rabies both of the dogs were destroyed by their owners.

In view of the condition of affairs it is believed that at the next meeting of Council a rigid muzzling law will be enacted.

WILL NOT SEE DAUGHTER.

Mrs. Middleton Refuses Forgiveness to Bride of Chauffeur Who Eloped

"A member of my family saw my daughter yesterday. She now knows that we do not want to see her again nor have any communication with her."

This was the emphatic statement made by Mrs. Anna Middleton, widow of Lee B. Middleton, of Newport and Washington, whose young daughter, Gertrude W. Middleton, three months ago eloped with a chauffeur and was married in Alexandria. Her husband is William P. Storty, who for several years has been employed by Charles Henry Butler, reporter for the United States Supreme Court.

Miss Middleton closely followed the example of Miss Julia French, whom Miss Middleton knows, when she escaped the vigilance of her mother and married "Jack" Geraghty, Newport chauffeur.

The bride's mother lives in the Lucerne Apartment House, 1539 I St., Northwest, Washington, two doors from Mr. Butler. The young couple met three years ago while Storty was waiting for Mr. Butler in the touring car.

Saying she was going to the theatre on the night of December 17, Miss Middleton met Storty downtown and in Mr. Butler's car drove to Alexandria and were married by Rev. Dr. J. Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Storty kept her secret until a few days ago, when, without giving any explanation to her mother, she went to an apartment in the northeastern section of Washington, which her husband had fitted up for her.

Mrs. Middleton is wealthy and owns considerable real estate in Washington.

FREIGHT CARS ROBBED.

Thieves Said to Have Made Haul in Potomac Railroad Yards.

The police have been informed that thieves on Tuesday night broke open three cars at the Potomac Railroad yards and carried off shoes, and other merchandise.

It is said that an automobile containing strangers was seen in the vicinity of the yards early Tuesday night, and it was suggested that the plunder was carried off in the auto.

ADDRESS ON LIVINGSTONE.

Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, spoke last night at that church on "Livingstone, the Man and the Missonary." The occasion was the observance of the one hundredth anniversary of David Livingstone's birth.

G. A. Luttrell, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, delivered an address on similar lines at the services at that church last night.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

SCALDED IN WRECK.

Engineer Killed Under Locomotive and Fireman's Arm Cut Off.

Newport News, Va., March 20.—While runing at a speed of about twenty miles an hour, a southbound New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk freight train jumped the track at Bell Haven, a station about 25 miles north of Cape Charles, Va., at :30 yesterday morning, instantly killing the engineer and probably fatally injuring the fireman, whose left arm was cut off.

The exact cause of the wreck is not known, except it occurred at a new switch frog. The engine kept the main line, but five heavily loaded cars jumped the track, hurling the locomotive crosswise and smashing the cab and upper works.

When found the engineer was underneath the engine, mashed and mangled. Both men were badly scalded.

PLANS FOR CAPE HENRY FORT.

Col. Winslow Instructed by the Government to Make Purchase as Soon as Possible.

Norfolk, March 20.—The project looking toward the acquisition of land at Cape Henry and the erection thereon of a fortification for the defense of the entrance to Chesapeake Bay is being pushed with extraordianry vigor.

Lieutenant Colonel E. Eveleth Winslow, U. S. A., engineer in charge at Norfolk and executive member of the Board recently appointed to have charge of this work received formal instructions from the War Department this morning to negotiate for and purchase the site, the exact boundaries of which he is expected to learn at Washington shortly.

He leaves for Washington tonight to attend a called meeting of the Board tomorrow, at which the matter of location will be considered. The members of this Board are: Major General Wm. W. Wotherspoon, assistant chief of staff; Colonel Edward Burr, Lieutenant Colonel E. Eveleth Winslow, corps of engineers, Major General Blakely and William Chamberlaine.

The members, Colonel Winslow said, all are familiar with the ground at Cape Henry, this membership being about the same as that of the boards on fortification at Guantanamo and Panama, and have visited Cape Henry upon previous occasions. Colonel Burr was stationed here some years ago.

It was said that the Board will visit Cape Henry shortly but will not come this week. The session at Washington will last probably two days. The number and character of the guns to be emplaced at the Cape is yet to be determined by the Board, but it is understood that they will be 14 inch, of the disappearing type, and also mortars. It also it understood that the plan now is to have quarters constructed for four companies of coast artillery, numbering, with their officers, about 450.

The ordering of Colonel Winslow to negotiate for and buy thesite is considered by those in interest to indicate the purpose of the Department to hurry this work as fast as practicable and gratification over the prospect of the work being soon afoot was expressed by these and other citizens with whom the matter was discussed today.

Paylor Sentenced.

Danville, Va., March 20—W. S. Paylor, defaulting City Treasurer, who pleaded guilty last week to a shortage of $9,000 in the city's funds has been sentenced to 18 months in the State's prison. His sentence was not imposed last week because it was necessary for him to testify at the trial of Alderman C. C. Snead, who was indicted on the charge of collusion in the embezzlement, but was not vindicated.

Plant Shipped.

Manassas, Va., March 20—One-half of the Alcott paving block plant, which has been in operation here for more than a year, has been shipped to Baltimore. This change was brought about through lack of lumber at paying prices. After continuing here for two weeks more the other half of the plant will be shipped to Norfolk.

BITTEN BY A CAT.

Mrs. Janison, of Franklin County, Under Treatment in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., March 20.—Mrs. G. W. Janison, of Boone Mill, Franklin county, is undergoing treatment at the Virginia Hospital for a mad cat bite, and is reported to be progressing very nicely.

It appears that Mrs. Janison was attending to some household chores when the rabid feline suddenly sprang at her throat.

Seizing the cat by the back of the neck, Mrs. Janison succeeded in dashing it to the floor before its fangs could be implanted in her throat. However, she sustained scratches about the hands and arms in the encounter.

After examination of the wounds, Dr. C. L. Dillon, the family physician, deemed it best that she take the Pasteur treatment without delay. Accordingly Mrs. Janison was rushed to Richmond and placed under the care of Dr. S. B. Moon, the Pasteur expert at Virginia Hospital.

The head of the cat when analyzed, showed unmistakable signs of rabies.

Another victim of a mad dog was received at the State Department of Health yesterday for treatment. The patient is Albert Long, nine years old, from Lorne, Caroline county, who was bitten by a rabid hound last Saturday. The lad, it seems, was engaged in sawing wood with an older brother, when the dog, a stray animal, suddenly atacked them. The boys took to their heels, but the younger one fell and was bitten on the ankle by the dog before he could protect himself. They finally succeeded in killing him with the saw.

Experts in Washington, who examined its head, said that the dog was undoubtedly mad.

VIRGINIAN ELOPES.

George Allen Weds Society Belle of Maryland.

Baltimore, March 20.—It became known yesterday that Miss Reba Diffenderfer, daughter of W. Stewart Diffenderfer, and one of Green Spring Valley's prominent society belles, eloped to Ellicott City, Md., on Tuesday afternoon and was married to George Allen Lee, of Warrenton, Va.

The story of the courtship of Mr. Lee is a romantic one. Both he and his wife are well known for daring feats as equestrians. Mr. Lee is president of a large manufacturing establishment in New York and one of the officials of the New York Horse Show Association. He seldom came to Baltimore, except to visit his brother. Miss Diffenderfer has been to New York a great deal during the past year.

She met Mr. Lee two years ago at one of the horse shows in the metropolis. It was said yesterday that whenever Mr. Lee came to the Green Spring Valley to visit his brother he always took advantage of a horseback ride across the beautiful country. Miss Diffenderfer frequently accompanied him.

Early Tuesday morning Mr. Lee called at Miss Diffenderfer's home and the elopement was finally planned. When they returned home to their respective families each divulged the elopement. Their relatives expressed great astonishment.

The couple will leave for Atlantic City today where they will later go to New York and prepare to leave for Europe, returning to this country the latter part of the summer. They will make their home in New York city.

Mr. Lee is 32 years old. He divides his time between New York and Warrenton, Va. He is well connected and is a grandson of Richard Bland Lee, who was a first cousin to Robert E. Lee.

NEW JUDGE FOR VIRGINIA.

Leading Lawyer of Charlottesville, Succeeds Hon. John M. White.

Richmond, Va., March 20.—John W. Fishburne, one of the leading lawyers of Charlottesville, a son of the late Clement D. Fishburne, was yesterday appointed by Governor Mann to fill the vacancy on the bench of the Eighth judicial circuit caused by the death of the late Judge John M. White. The appointment holds until the next session of the legislature, in 1914, when that body will elect a successor to Judge White for the remainder of his unexpired term. The counties in the circuit are Albemarle, Madison and Greene.

Judge Fishburne was born in Albemarle county. His father was for years cashier of the Bank of Albemarle. Judge Fishburne was educated at Pantops Academy, Washington and Lee University of Virginia. Before entering the law school of the University of Virginia he taught at the Fishburne Military Academy, in Waynesboro, Va. After receiving his diploma in the university law school, in 1890, he entered at once upon the practice of his profession in partnership with the late Capt. Micajah Woods.

Judge Fishburne served one term in the Virginia legislature (1895-96). He has been a member of the State Library Board since its formation under the new constitution, is a member of the executive committee of the General Alumni Association of the University of Virginia and a director of the People's National Bank. In 1898 he married Miss Mary Lyons, daughter of the late Judge Thomas Barton Lyons.

GIRL ROBBED AGAIN.

Pays Money on Policy and Learns She is Swindled.

Norfolk, Va., March 20.—Miss Pattie Townes, who some months ago was gagged and robbed of $600 in cash while alone in the office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company here, has been robbed again.

This time a heavy veiled negro woman, claiming to be the widow of John Poole, secured a check on the life policy held by John. The woman knew no one at the bank, and Miss Townes gave her the cash.

Now the man whose name was purported to be signed to the order of the check denies the signature. The real widow, Janet Poole, has now turned up.

Father Glenn to Leave Richmond.

Richmond, Va., March 20.—Rev. Joseph B. Glenn, one of the best known priests of the Catholic Church in Richmond, who for four years past has been vice president of the Van de Vyver College, received notification yesterday that he will be transferred to Memphis, Tenn., where he will become pastor of St. Anthony's Church. Father Glenn came to Richmond shortly after his graduation from the Catholic University of America, at Washington, and has taken an active interest in the civic betterment of the city. With Rev. Charles Hannigan, he has done much good for the negroes of this city and vicinity.

WORKING PEOPLE FIGHTING FOR EXISTENCE.

There are many sad scenes in connection with the short and simple annals of the poor. An item elsewhere in the Gazette tells of Senator Clark exhibiting his eight-million New York mansion to a delegation of West Virginians. The contrast between the Senator's surroundings and those of the many who are engaged in a perpetual struggle against the wolf which occasionally peeps in their doors is marked.

The report of the New York State labor department on its investigations of conditions among the Little Falls textile workers, brought to public attention by the recent strike, has been made public.

The investigators state that prior to the strike half of the men workers received a weekly wage of $9 or less, while half of the women received less than $7.50 "The settlement of the strike," the report adds, "made but little, if any, change from conditions as to wages." Monthly rents for the space occupied by a single family or group run from $6 to $18.

Of living conditions, the report says:

"The houses are frame structures, built singly or in groups. Bathrooms are entirely absent. Leaky roofs make dry rooms impossible. Ventilation is always bad. Cellars were found filled with water, ashes, waste, garbage, and filth. Sleeping rooms are small, especially when the number of occupants which they accommodate is considered. Some are windowless. Overcrowding is the rule. Owing to ignorance of the need of fresh air in a sleeping room, windows are kept constanly closed,even the cracks being filled or covered. The air of the slepeing room is charged with odors from the kitchen, the washtub, the garbage heap and the cellar, and in this condition is breathed again and again by the sleepers.

In each household one room serves as a kitchen, while all others are sleeping rooms. The kitchen is also dining-room, living room, washroom, laundry and, in some cases, a sleeping room.

"The head of the household is not simply the head of a family, nor even in the usual meaning of the term a boarding-housekeeper. She—for the housewife is the real head—is rather the financial agent of the members of her household, herself and her her immediate family forming only a part of such an organization.

"The term family is little used in this report. This is intentional. Family privacy is a thing unknown to the textile workers. This cannot be credited to a low moral standard, for physicians testify to a relatively high standard of morals.

"Dealers state that the millworkers buy a fairly good grade of food, but of the children enrolled in the schools one-sixth are reported suffering from mal-nutrition."

KING GEORGE'S ASSASSIN.

Schinas at One Time Worked in New York Hotel.

"Aleko Schinas, who assassinated King George, was a personal friend of mine when we worked together in the pantry of the old Fifth Avenue Hotel, Twenty-third street and Fifth avenue, New York," said Eratosthemus Charrns, a waiter at the Hotel Belvedere, Tuesday night. Charrns came to Baltimore about three weeks ago.

"For more than a year we worked side by side, and he told me many of his secrets and confidences," said Charrns, who appeared much affected by the death of the king. "I always quarreled with him because of his atheistic and socialistic ideas. One of his favorite expressions which caused several scraps in the pantry was to 'h——with King George.'

"Schinas was the best educated employe in the hotel. He could speak Greek, English, Italian and French fluently. The latter languages was his favorite and whenever he would become angry would express his thoughts in French. We did not understand the tongue, and after he said what he wanted to say which we suspected did not bear translation in English or Greek, he would become pleasant again.

"The assassin was about five feet ten inches tall and weighed about 155 pounds. He was a fine-looking fellow, with a wealth of jet black hair which flowed over his forehead. He was a man of education and refinement and was always preaching socialism. He lambasted his fellowworkmen every day in Greek and French because of their conservative views. Karl Marx was his patron, and on one occasion he distributed copies of Robert Blatchford's Merrie England.

"My old friend had no use for kings and members of aristocracy. He was always saying that the poor, uneducated man was as good as the wealthy and learned aristocrat. He was a persistent reader and there was nothing, it seemed, on the subject of Socialism that he did not read.

"He spent his leisure nights," continued Charrns, "on the East Side, making friends with radical and fervid thinkers, who fairly swarm there. He was never so happy as when seated in one of the coffee-houses among a number of his associates, and denouncing kings and governments.

"He stated a number of times that it was a shame that 3,000,000 of his enlightened countrymen in Greece, with the noble and glorious history that she possessed, should permit themselves to be ruled by a king. He also said that some day he would return to his native country and convert the people to his ideas.

"The newspapers say that he did return to Greece some time ago and established a school of Socialism in Volo.

"One day Schinas told me he had made application at the Hotel Plaza for a position. He advised me to do likewise, but I informed him that I was satisfied with my job. A week later he came to me and wished me goodby After that I only saw him but two or three times. I was informed that he had become a confirmed anarchist and some of the employes at our hotel often jokingly remarked that "Schinas would surely get his name in the papers some day by killing a president or king."

Expression of Condolence.

London, March 20.—The House of Commons this afternoon voted an expression of condolence to King George and Queen Mother Alexandra, for the assassination of their uncle and brother, King George of Greece. Premier Asquith and other cabinet ministers paid handsome tributes to the dead monarch.

Resignation.

Washington, March 20.—Huntington Wilson, assistant Secretary of State, today resigned because of the new administration's Chinese policy and his resignation was immediately accepted by President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan.

Wilson was assistant Secretary under Secretary of State Knox and was held over until Secretary Bryan selected his successor.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

SPRING.

The ground-hog's spell is broken and
St. Patrick's Day is past,
And soon the Lenten season will be gone,
And then we shall no longer in repentance, prayer and fast,
Nor go to church at evening, noon and dawn.

For the coming of the springtime brings with it a wholesome cheer,
And the sunshine is a tonic to our blood,
Then we feel as if we're blessed with all the good things of the year,
When we see the growing grass and op'ning-bud.

We've faith and hope in plenty when we scent the spring's perfume,
And we know no vexing woe or carking care,
For every one is twenty when the dog-wood blossoms bloom,
And we've friendship, joy and youth and love to spare.

So when the Southern breezes waft us visions of the Spring,
And the flowers gayly deck the field and wood,
Is it strange our hearts are joyous, is it strange that we can sing,
And think the earth is fair and God is good?

If Captain Young keeps an Indian wood-man in his store, has Dr. Allen got a Timberman?

When tonight's paper comes out, will John Reed it? Last night, Joe Drew the line on it. Anyhow Bill May, but Will Taylor?

There's no excuse for not arising early these mornings. The church bell rings every day at 6:30. Verily many are called, but few get up.

In history his place is secure,
His fame will forever endure,
Hard work is the hobby
Of rosy-cheeked Robbie,
Our State Delegate, R. Moncure.

Denies Plot.

Mexico City, March 20.—President Huerta today made vigorous personal denial that he had unearthed any plot to assassinate him. Cabinet ministers joined the president in nailing the story. The minister of war declared that the rumored plot was a reflection on the integrity of the army officers forming President Huerta's body guard and the discipline and loyalty of all the army.

Despite these details, it was learned that a thorough investigation is being made and that steps have been taken to segregate the Maderista element from the federal army.

Papers Confiscated.

Vienna, March 20.—Today's issue of several newspapers were confiscated by the government because they published accounts of the sailing of an Austria-Hungarian fleet to make a demonstration off the coast of Montenegro. The Reichpost said that the object of the demonstration was to enforce Austria-Hungary's demand that hostilities cease in Albania. Compliance by the allies with this demand would stop the siege of Scutari.

Asked to Reconsider Refusal.

Belfast, March 20.—The Secretary of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club today cabled the New York Yacht Club asking the Americans to reconsider their refusal of Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge for America's cup.

This was taken to mean that Sir Thomas had not given up the race yet and that if the New York Yacht Club fails to modify its stipulations the Irish baronet will amend his challenge.

Alienists yesterday examined the first "crank" of the Wilson administration. The man gave his name as Dr. Charles A. Schwab, of Dallas, Texas. He is being detained in the Washington asylum, in which institution he was placed Tuesday when arrested by Secret Service men on his arrival in Washington. The man said he was on his way to the White house to be sworn in as President and he had in his possession a number of written messages purporting to have been sent to him by Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court. It is believed that he wrote them himself.

A New Kind of Roofing

Asphalt Gravel That Will Last Ten Years—Can be Used Anywhere.

Cumberland, Md. — Among the many improvements at the new Y. M. C. building is the asphalt gravel roof (Security brand) that was put on under direction of Mr. Adam May.

A fairy tale is told about this roofing by Mr. A. M. Strickland, of Elkton, Md. About fifteen years ago he built the Elkton Foundry and covered the roof with Security Asphalt Gravel roofing and four years afterward the building and contents were consumed by fire. Nothing was left but the walls and roofing.

Being of an economical turn of mind he ordered the carpenters to cut down the roofing in strips, losing only the laps.

He used these strips of roofing on the new foundry building and it is in good condition today after ten years of active service.

It would be difficult to believe such a tale, because tin, iron and slate or any other composition roofing would have gone to smash or curled up and blown away in such a conflagration.

There is reason to believe that this true, because it stood the test in a similar fire in the B. & O. hay shed at Mt. Clare Station, Baltimore, some years ago.

This roofing can be purchased of

POPE PIUS'S CONDITION.

Physician Says Aged Prelate Cannot Last Long.

Rome, March 20.—During the past two days the pope has suffered from insomnia and loss of appetite. The liquid diet which he has been taking has failed to overcome the weakness resulting from his illness. Yesterday on his name day, the feast of St. Joseph, he was compelled to remain in bed, and for the first time since he was ordained a priest was unable to celebrate mass on this occasion.

Although Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, telegraphed officially the condolences of the Pope to Greece on the death of King George, the news of the assassination of the Greek, manarch has been withheld from the pontiff, as the doctors were afraid of the effect of the shock during his present great depression which is due to his weakness. The late king of Greece was for a long time friendly with the pope, whom he knew well, and often met, while the pontiff was patriarch of Venice.

Professor Marchiafava, the pope's physician, said last night that he was afraid that the pope would not last long. In any case he will not resume his audiences for a month.

TO SERVE SIX MONTHS.

Gave Boy Liquor And Made Him Beastly Drunk.

Richmond, March 20.—Six months in jail was the sentence meted out to Charles Kramar by Judge Crutchfield yesterday morning after Sergeant Zimmer had testified that he found Wilbur Watkins, a fourteen-year-old boy, drunk in a room of the Capital Inn, behind the State Library.

The boy told the court that Kramar had given him two drinks of whiskey.

When the lad was found in the room by Sergeant Zimmer he was in a stupor and was unable to tell his name. The efforts of the officer to revive him were partially successful, and the boy recovered sufficiently to tell who he was and the name of the man who had given him the whiskey.

A short time later Kramar came in and the lad identified him as the man who had given him the liquor. Kramar was at once arrested and a charge of vagrancy was placed against him. When the court heard the testimony of the officer and the boy, however, he thought six months would be little enough.

BOY SHOOTS COMPANION.

Juvenile Wild West Show Ends in Tragedy.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 20.—An attempt to depict an act he had witnessed in a Wild West show nearly cost the life of Charles Pfroomer, six years old, of No. 2217 South Fifteenth street, was taken to the Methodist Hospital last night with a 22-calibre bullet wound in his back. John Ryan, 11 years old of No. 2426 South Eleventh street, said by the police to have fired the shot was taken to the House of Detention and will have a hearing.

With several companions Pfroomer and Ryan yesterday erected a small tent on a vacant lot at thirtieth street and Oregon avenue and announced that they would give a real wild west show during the remainder of the week. The first performance was held last night, and had not fairly begun when Pfroomer received a shot in the back while one of the "cow boys" was giving an exhibition of rifle shooting as it is done in the west.

According to the police, Ryan was selected to shoot targets from different positions, and Pfroomer was asked to assist the "expert' 'rifleman. It was while Pfroomer was holding one of the targets, the police say, that he received the wound in his back.

PUNISHMENT OF THE HAZERS.

Regarding the verdct of the jury in the case of the North Carolina boys who caused the death of a fellow-student by hazing the Charlotte Observer says:

"Four months in jail is the smallest part of the punishment which has been visited upon the boys convicted of the fatal case of hazing. As long as they live they will be talked of as the boys who were convicted of manslaughter. Their prison term will be quickly served, as prison terms go, and will be forgotten, but the recorded verdict on the courthouse docket will live. Surely even those who cried aloud for the punishment of the unfortunate students will subscribe ' "Satisfied,' against the outcome of the trial. - In the nature of a warning against hazing it should prove sufficient and should have a salutary effect, if that were the purpose sought."

It was learned after the above was written that the boys will not have to serve actual jail terms. Still the fact of their conviction remains and there is no doubt of its salutary effect.

FLINGS HERSELF UNDER TRAIN

Chooses Decapitation as Means of Suicide When Crazed by Poverty And Motherhood.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 19.—Crazed by poverty and the pangs of recent motherhood, Mrs. Cecelia Kornitsky, 30 years old of No. 1331 South Lawrence street, flung herself beneath the wheels of a moving freight train in Washington avenue at Swanson street yesterday, and was decapitated. She had been on her way to a butcher shop to plead for some meat on credit.

Surrounded by four motherless children, al boys, the eldest being 11 years old, and the youngest, a baby of two months, Abram Kornitsky with the aid of an interpreter, told of the cause of the disaster that has overwhelmed him. The Kornitskys are Russian Jews, the father being a clothing presser. Times have been hard with the little family this winter because of scarcity of work. Two months ago the baby came at a time when the family finances were at their lowest ebb. Physical suffering, combined with mental distress, due to their poverty, unbalanced the mother's mind. She had declared several times recently that life was not worth living. A few hours before her suicide she threatened to throw herself from the second-story window.

Her husband comforted her and finally obtained her promise that she would not take her life. It was then decided that Mrs. Kornitsky would go to the butcher's and try to obtain some meat on credit. There was not a crust in the home. She started out with the basket and that was the last time her family saw her alive.

Kind neighbors are taking care of the baby, and the older children are shifting for themselves. The father, who has no work, said he could place the baby in a Jewish nursery.

....."Wets and Drys" of Danville.

Danville, Va., March 19.—Both the wets and the drys are hard at work registering and transferring voters so that they will be eligible to cast a vote in the local option election which will be held April 15th. Although both sides are making claims as to the majority they will have,there is hardly any question but that this election, as those heretofore, will be close, and the result is impossible to forecast with any accuracy.

Stubborn Colds May Lead to Consumption

Did you ever have a cold that would not let go; a cough that persisted, that prevented sleep and made waking hours miserable? Eckman's Alterative is the proper remedy in such cases. Perhaps some simple medicine may be effective where it is only a tickling in the throat; but when your chest is sore and simple remedies don't answer—then take Eckman's Alterative. Neglect often leads to more serious trouble; a case in point follows:—

718 Cherry St., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: In July, 1905, I first noticed the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I lost weight rapidly; had a hollow cough, hemorrhages and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Eckman's Alterative. In the fall of 1905, I began to take it. At this time I am perfectly well and robust. My appetite is good and my weight has increased from 110 to 140 pounds. Not a trace of my old trouble remains. I will gladly express the merits of this medicine to anyone."

(Signed) M. L. GERHARDT.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

SUNNY BROOK
THE—PURE FOOD—WHISKEY

To arrive at the top in any department of commercial effort one must produce, offer and do better than has been produced, offered or done before. Fifty years ago we determined that Sunny Brook must be the finest whiskey that could be made in Old Kentucky and we have never deviated from this policy. Today we are known as the finest and purest of fine old whiskies in the world.

Sunny Brook reached its high standard of excellence and surpassed all others in mellow flavor, exquisite bouquet and tonic properties. The friends Sunny Brook made fifty years ago because of its high quality and purity are still its friends, and all over this broad land a majority of the discriminating public demands Sunny Brook and absolutely refuses substitutes of any kind. Sunny Brook is a real honest, straight Kentucky Whiskey and is bottled in bond. Every bottle is filled and then sealed with the "Green Stamp," under the direct supervision of U. S. Inspectors. KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE.

Boy Glides Into Path of Machine While Playing With Companions.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 19.—Roller skating in the street yesterday cost the life of 8-year-old William Paul Marlow. As the little fellow glided across the asphalt pavement at 16th and Cayuga streets, he shot into the path of a touring car driven by E. H. Bert, and was struck and instantly killed.

Young Marlow hurried home yesterday afternoon from the Edwin T. Steel public school, 17th and Cayuga streets, and after procuring his roller skates hastened back to the vicinity of the school, where the smooth asphalt pavements form the daily Mecca for scores of youthful roller skaters. There he joined a group of gleeful playmates in the enjoyment of their favorite sport. A half hour later word was taken to his mother that he had been killed.

Bert, who is a dealer in laundry machinery, was arrested and last night was arraigned before Magistrate Gorman in the Night Court and was held in his own recognizance to appear before the coroner today.

Thieving Negress Admits Two Fires to Conceal Her Robberies.

Lansdowne, P., March 20.—Trusted implicity for a year as servant in the home of Joseph H. Roech, of Beechwood, Haverford township, Edna Holland, a negress, has confessed several robberies and two fires in the house, started to conceal her thefts.

The plunder includes Roach's diamond ring, worth $250, as yet unrecovered, a gold ring, stickpins, $36 and several of Roach's best suits, packed up to remove, when detected.

Ellen admits that she set fire to Baby Roach's bed to hide her crime when she stole the stickpins and the gold rings, and fired a closet when the dimond ring was taken, so that an outside firebug and robber would be suspected.

Preparing to Renew Struggle at Coming Jamestown Jockey Club Races.

Richmond, Va., March 20.—With the coming of the annual spring meet of the Jamestown Jockey Club at Norfolk on April 1, Governor Mann is again confronted with the problem of how to break up the attending gambling when the local magistracy is unable to see it. In spite of the determined attempts to visit the bookmakers with summary punishment, gambling flourished last spring during the entire meet.

"I have by no means abandoned the fight," said the Governor yesterday, with an emphatic gesture. "There will be no disposition on the part of the executive office to leave off a struggle against something which the law specifically declares to be wrong. If the bookmakers attend the coming races and attempt to do business, I will proceed against them again."

BURN IN DEATH HOUSE.

Chicago Landmark Maintains Sinister Reputation at Last

Chicago, March 20—The tragic experience of the "House of Death" at No. 2359 Wentworth Avenue, closed early yesterday morning with its burning by an incendiary fire, in which three lives were lost.

Frank Pustella and his brother-in-law, Joseph Covalieri, escaped with severe burns by leaping from a second story window, but Mrs. Pustella, and her daughters, 3 and 5 years old, perished in the flames.

The house gained its name in the neighborhood because of the fatalities which have occurred there within ten years. A decade ago Jacob Werner opened a meat market in the place. Soon after his entire family died and Werner committed suicide. Werner's clerk, Fred Kunz, took the market, but soon after his little daughter was scalded to death in a pickling vat, and a week after the accident Kunz was found dead under mysterious circumstances. The next tenant was a man named Straus, who was murdered in the house A few weeks later an unidentified Italian crawled under the porch of the place and committed suicide.

AN ORDINANCE.
Official.

An ordinance to provide for the grading and paving of Royal street, from the south building line of Prince street to the south building line of Wilkes street, except the space between the rails, and two (2) feet on the outside thereof, of the track of the Washington-Virginia Railway Co. and also except the space between the rails, and two (2) feet outside thereof, of the track of the Southern Railway Company, in Wilkes street, and for the curbing of said street.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia:

Section 1.—That the Committee on Streets is hereby authorized and directed to have Royal street, from the south building line of Prince street to the south building line of Duke street, except the space between the rail, and two (2) feet on the outside thereof, of the track of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company, graded, paved and curbed in a good and substantial manner, under the supervision of the City Engineer; using for the paving vitrified brick on a six (6) inch concrete base, and for the curbing a six (6) inch granite curb, set in concrete.

And that the Committee on Streets is hereby authorized and directed to have Royal street, from the south building line of Duke street to the south building line of Wilkes street, except the space between the rails, and two (2) feet on the oustide thereof, of the tracks of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company, and also except the space between the rails, and two (2) feet outside thereof, of the track of the Southern Railway Company in Wilkes streets, graded, paved and curbed in a good and substantial manner, under the supervision of the City Engineer; using for the paving, vitrified brick on a four (4) inch concrete base, from the curb line to a point two (2) feet six (6) inches therefrom, and for the remaining part of the roadway, broken stone with bituminous filler, laid by mixed or penetration method, on a six (6) inch concrete base, and for the curbing, a six (6) inch granite curb, set in concrete.

And the said Committee on Streets shall advertise for ten (10) days in some newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, or in any other newspaper and publications, should they deem it necessary, for proposals for materials, and they shall do said grading, paving and curbing by day labor, or if in their opinion, the best interests of the City Council will be subserved thereby, by contract under bond, after advertisement as hereinbefore provided for materials.

Section 2.—That as the said grading, paving and curbing is being done, the auditor is authorized to draw warrants, from time to time upon the Treasurer of this city in an amount not to exceed Nine Thousand ($9,-50000) five hundred dollars, to pay for said grading, paving and curbing, and a sufficient amount of money for such purpose, not to exceed nine thousand $(9,500.00), five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated.

Section 3.—This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

MRS. McGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts In Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.
